

The Wolfe Institute Presents

A Spring 2022 campus-wide reading group open to students, faculty, and staff

Organized by Black Faculty and Staff

featuring

---

The Prophets by Robert Jones, Jr.,

BC Alum, New York Times Bestseller, and Finalist for the National Book Award

The Prophets is a singular and stunning debut novel about the forbidden union between two enslaved young men on a Deep South plantation, the refuge they find in each other, and a betrayal that threatens their existence.

---

We will meet via Zoom to discuss the books themes Wednesdays at 4pm

February 9th (Black History and Memory), March 9th (Black Queerness), April 6th (Black Liberation for All), and May 11th*

**May 11th will be hybrid and, conditions permitting, author Robert Jones, Jr. will be on campus for a discussion and book signing!*

Email wolfeinstitute@brooklyn.cuny.edu to sign up and get information about how you might receive a FREE copy of the book!

Cosponsored by the Center for Teaching and Learning, English Department, Sociology Department, Black and Latino Male Initiative, Black Student Union, Puerto Rican and Latino Studies Department, Africana Studies Department, History Department, Women's and Gender Studies, LGBTQ resource center, Student Activities Involvement and Leadership, and the Asian American Faculty and Staff Association

Thank you to G. P. Putnam's Sons for donating copies of The Prophets for this reading group