

The Department of Judaic Studies

The Department of Judaic Studies, in cooperation with The Office of the President, Ethyle R. Wolfe Institute for the Humanities, the Departments of Film, History, Secondary Education, Television/Radio, and the Woody Tanger Hillel of Brooklyn College, presents a screening and a discussion

The Annual Francis Haidt Lecture Series

Who Will Write Our History? Film as History of the Warsaw Ghetto

This new highly praised film, produced on location in Poland where the Nazi Germans crowded a half million Jews into the Warsaw Ghetto, is based on Samuel Kassow's award-winning book Who Will Tell Our History?: Emanuel Ringelblum, the Warsaw Ghetto and the Secret Ghetto Archive (Indiana UP, 2018). The film reveals how a clandestine team of dedicated scholars, writers, and activists sought to document and preserve the experience of masses of Jews held within the ghetto until deportation to the Treblinka death camp. The secret ghetto archive was a conscious act of resistance, paving the way intellectually and emotionally for the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising. Following the film, Professor Robert Shapiro of Judaic Studies and Professor Robert Tutak of Film will lead discussion with the audience.

Monday, April 8, 2019

6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Woody Tanger Auditorium
Brooklyn College Library

Non-Brooklyn College Members should RSVP:
Phone: 718.951.5000 ext. 3990

WE STAND AGAINST HATE
Enhancing Understanding and Compassion at Brooklyn College