

---

Faculty

CAROLINE E. ARNOLD, PhD, University of California, Berkeley, 2006

Political economy of development, comparative political economy, Indian and Turkish politics and political economy.

---

COREY ROBIN, PhD, Yale University, 1999

Political theory, with an emphasis on modern political thought, political theory of capitalism, the politics of fear, conservatism and counterrevolution, liberalism and the Left.

---

CELINA SU, PhD, MIT, 2005

Participatory democracy and civic engagement, especially in local politics; politics of health and education policy; civil society, especially grassroots and social movement organizations.

---

IMMANUEL NESS, PhD, CUNY Graduate Center, 1995

Political economy of labor movements, contemporary Global North-South relations, migration, and imperialism.

---

JANET ELISE JOHNSON, PhD, Indiana University, 2001

Gender, violence, and civil society, especially in Russia and other post-communist societies.

---

KOSAL PATH, PhD, University of Southern California, 2008

International relations, with an emphasis on East Asia and Southeast Asia, genocide studies, and transitional justice.

---

MOJÚBÀOLÚ OLUFÚNKÉ OKOME, PhD, Columbia University, 1996

International relations, with a focus on Africa, international political economy, gender, democratization, and contemporary immigration, and state and society relations in Africa

---

MARK UNGAR, PhD, Columbia University, 1997

Latin American politics, criminal justice, environmental enforcement, and democratization

---

---

For more information about earning a master's degree in international affairs and global justice, visit brooklyn.cuny.edu/polisci/graduate

Kosal Path, Ph.D.

assistant professor and graduate deputy,
Political Science

kosalpath@brooklyn.cuny.edu

718.951.5000 ext. 1752

---

Brooklyn College | Department of
Political Science

Office of Graduate Admissions

PHONE: 718.951.4536

WEBSITE: grads@brooklyn.cuny.edu

MASTER OF ARTS
IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS AND GLOBAL JUSTICE

at Brooklyn College
The City University of New York

Why International Affairs and Global Justice?

The International Affairs and Global Justice program prepares you for careers in foreign affairs, international development, international human rights, and the private sector or to move on to law school or doctoral programs in social sciences.

About the Program

The Master of Arts in International Affairs and Global Justice at Brooklyn College offers:

Comprehensive program with small classes—seminars, professional development, and independent study—in International Relations, Comparative Politics, and Global Justice.

Renowned faculty engaged in cutting-edge research with real-world application and a diverse student body from all over the world.

Flexible program, either part-time or full-time study, with completion in one to two years, most classes in the evening.

#1 “best bang for the buck” in the US (Washington Monthly), scholarships available.

Internship opportunities at government agencies, NGOs, and international organizations, especially the United Nations, in New York City.

Program Highlights

Small Classes that do not exceed 20 students taught in a seminar format.

Strong Placement Record. Previous students hold positions at the United Nations, foreign ministries, non-governmental organizations, or are admitted to doctoral programs at major universities in the United States.

Located in New York City with easy access to the United Nations and other international organizations, diplomatic missions, and multinational corporations.

Brooklyn College offers Study Abroad programs in countries such as China, Ghana, Cambodia, and India during winter intersession and summer session.

Scholarships and other financial support are available for research and study abroad.

STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE:

Four Core Courses (12 credits)

POLS 7610 International Relations

POLS 7720 Comparative Politics

POLS 7960 Professional Development

POLS 7001 Research Methods

Six Electives (18 credits)

We offer 26 electives on issues ranging from modern international politics, mass violence to climate crisis. With department approval, up to four courses from other graduate programs at CUNY, such as the Ph.D. program at the CUNY Graduate Center or the Master of Arts Program in International Crime and Justice at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, can be counted as electives.

EXAMINATIONS

A pass/fail comprehensive exam and a foreign language exam

APPLICATION

The application deadline for the Fall term is May 31. See the Admissions site at brooklyn.cuny.edu/web/admissions/graduate.php for the online application process. The GRE is not required.