

Collaborative Autism Spectrum Program

CASP at Brooklyn College enables students on the autism spectrum to enrich their experiences and meet their full potential for success through individualized support in collaboration with campus resources.

ALL SERVICES ARE FREE

Individualized Support

Trained Brooklyn College students in related graduate programs provide guidance in the following areas:

- College transition
- Social interactions & effective communication
- Coursework management

Phone: 718-951-5538 (ask for the CASP Coordinator)
Email: CASP@brooklyn.cuny.edu

The Learning Center

Tutoring available to help students with coursework and writing skills

Location: 1300 Boylan Hall    Phone: 718-951-5821
Website: www.lc.brooklyn.cuny.edu

The Health Clinic

Primary care facility which provides the following:

- Checkups
- Medical and psychiatric care
- Sexual and women's health
- Social service help
- Nutrition counseling

Location: 114 Roosevelt Hall    Phone: 718-951-5580
Website: www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/healthclinic

CUNY LEADS

Facilitates successful career outcomes for students with disabilities

- Academic advisement
- Resume and interview preparation
- Career counseling
- Self-advocacy skills

Location: 138 Roosevelt Hall    Phone: 718-951-5538
Email: Nelmy.Pichardo62@brooklyn.cuny.edu

Personal Counseling Services

- Assistance with personal issues
- Emergency consultations and referrals
- Workshops on test anxiety, stress management and more

Location: 0203 James Hall    Phone: 718-951-5363
Email: BCPersonalCounseling@gmail.com

Individual & Group Counseling offered at the Center for Student Disability Services on Thursdays from 1pm-2pm

Speech-Language-Hearing Center

- Individual and group sessions targeting social skills and problem solving
- Diagnostic and rehabilitative services for students with speech, language, voice and hearing differences or difficulties

Location: 4400 Boylan Hall    Phone: 718-951-5186
Email: slhcenter@brooklyn.cuny.edu