

BROOKLYN COLLEGE FOUNDATION 2008-2009 ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Alumni and Friends

It is an honor for me to accept the position of Chair of the Board of the Brooklyn College Foundation, as of July 1, 2009. Although this Annual Report is published while I am Chair, it covers the period July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009, while Marge Magner was the Chair of the Board.

Under Marge's leadership from 2005-2009, the Foundation had an extraordinarily successful run, raising over $40 million. This money was used to underwrite approximately 5,000 scholarships and awards, 100 Professorships, and the final plans to break ground on the Leonard and Claire Tow Center for the Performing Arts. We are fortunate that Marge continues to serve the Foundation both as Chair of the Development Committee of the Board and Chair of the soon-to-be-launched Foundation for Success Campaign.

2009 saw many other changes for Brooklyn College, notably the retirement of Dr. Christoph Kimmich and the appointment of Dr. Karen Gould as its ninth president. We on the Foundation board all felt privileged to work with Dr. Kimmich and congratulate him on his successful tenure as President.

It has been a joy to welcome Dr. Gould to Brooklyn College, and I know that the entire Foundation Board has been impressed by her warmth, intelligence, and quick grasp of our great institution. We all look forward to working closely with her in the years ahead.

I want to thank all of the alumni, foundations, and corporations that have contributed to the Foundation in its mission to support Brooklyn College, its students, and its faculty. The long list of names at the back of this book is an extraordinary testament to the strength of our community and the importance of our common mission to provide affordable access to excellent higher education.

Sincerely,

Chair

Brooklyn College Foundation

Dear Friends of Brooklyn College

In my first year as President of Brooklyn College, I am grateful for the warm reception I have received from Brooklyn College alumni, trustees of the Foundation, and friends of the College. I am also deeply appreciative of your continuing participation in the life of Brooklyn College and your commitment to our past, current, and future success.

While 2008-2009 was a challenging year for the Foundation, it is clear that much was accomplished. The determination and professional management by the Trustees made it possible to sustain the Foundation's impact even as the endowment contracted and the needs of our students became ever more acute. Today, the endowment has rebounded remarkably well, and we are thankful for the insightful management of our endowment fund.

This report describes the work undertaken and underscores the positive impact of your combined efforts on the lives of our students and faculty and on the quality of our educational programs.

I especially want to thank Marge Magner for her work as Chair of the Foundation from 2005-2009 and to salute Barry Feirstein as the new Chair of the Foundation. I know I speak for the entire Brooklyn College community in thanking my predecessor, Dr. Christoph Kimmich, for his excellent stewardship of the college over the previous decade. The work described in this report is in many ways a testament to the confidence of the trustees in his leadership.

In the years ahead, I look forward to working with all of you to build on our strong traditions, on the marvelous work of the Foundation, and on the passion we share for the mission and the future of Brooklyn College.

Sincerely,

Introduction

The Brooklyn College Foundation was established over fifty years ago by alumni who wanted to ensure that future generations of students would continue to benefit from affordable access to excellent higher education. Since then, the Foundation has become an increasingly critical resource for students, faculty, and academic programs. Through the generosity of alumni, corporations, and private institutions, the Foundation advances the College's mission by providing thousands of scholarships and stipends annually, as well as funds for professorships, academic programs, and key capital projects.

In our fifty-first year, the Foundation navigated perhaps the toughest economic climate in our history. Like many non-profit organizations, our endowment was significantly affected by the recession, endangering many scholarship and program funds. At the same time student financial needs sharply increased and traditional sources of support for faculty development and academic programs contracted.

The financial crisis was especially difficult for many Brooklyn College students and their families. Compared with other institutions of higher education, a relatively high proportion of Brooklyn College students come from families with household incomes below $40,000. Students often must balance education with full- or part-time work and family obligations.

Many of our alumni and trustees pursued their education under similar circumstances. They know better than anyone that Brooklyn College students strive every day to create a rewarding future for themselves and their families. When the financial downturn threatened endowed scholarships and funds, our trustees, together with our students and faculty, rose to the challenge.

In the following pages, you will discover how the Foundation was able to meet all our obligations and successfully sustain our mission of continuous support and opportunity for Brooklyn College students.

Rising to the Challenge

Faced with unprecedented challenges, our trustees and staff were determined to fulfill every one of the Foundation's financial commitments to students, faculty, and programs. Drawing on our trustees' backgrounds of experienced leadership and financial stewardship, we implemented several successful strategies, including:

■ The Investment Committee made two prescient decisions. In September, 2007, anticipating obligations to a new fund, the committee transferred $15 million from equities into money-market funds while the market was at its peak. And, in 2008, when encouraged to invest Foundation funds with Bernie Madoff, it declined the offer.

■ The Foundation successfully navigated the severe constraints on endowment funds posed by New York State law. During the market downturn, the endowment declined almost thirty percent, and many funds set up by alumni retreated below their original gifted value. New York State law restricted distributions from such "underwater" accounts, and the disbursement of nearly three hundred scholarships was threatened. To address the dilemma of underwater funds, Foundation staff contacted over three hundred endowment donors to amend or supplement their gifts for immediate use.

■ The legal constraints on endowment payout necessitated a strategic shift in focus by the Foundation. We concentrated on raising unrestricted funds in 2009. Unlike endowment funds, unrestricted funds can be spent immediately, so that each dollar in unrestricted support has the immediate impact of twenty-five endowed dollars.

■ The Feirstein Challenge provided a critical boost to our strategy. When Trustee Barry Feirstein accepted his nomination and election to become board president, he spoke of his commitment to careful attention and speedy response. Mr. Feirstein acted quickly when the Foundation was called upon to raise millions in urgently required unrestricted funds, offering a $1 million challenge gift to match new and converted unrestricted funds for existing obligations. In response, a further $2 million in unrestricted funds was raised or converted by trustees.

■ To protect against future market downturns, we created new endowed gift opportunities that offer more flexibility should capital be required to fulfill donor intent.

■ Finally, the board established new policies to ensure future stability. In the future, all funds for all scholarships and commitments will be earned and secured before being obligated.

The generous support of alumni and trustees enabled the Foundation to weather the economic downturn. Overall, we mobilized over $3 million in unrestricted funds to help students and programs. The challenging events of the past year have even created a silver lining. Foundation board members and staff reconnected with both new and long-time donors as they worked together to fulfill obligations.

Q&A with Martin Sass

Marty Sass graduated from Brooklyn College in 1963 with a B.S. degree in Accounting, a well-honed work ethic, and a keen insight to match his strong ambition. At age thirteen, Mr. Sass started supporting himself by delivering groceries, and he continued working through college as a waiter and busboy. In college, he chose a degree program he knew would provide a firm foundation for a future in business.

Mr. Sass got an early taste of business success in his senior-year Securities Analysis class. Professor Louis Fier posed a challenge to his students. He asked them to choose, research, and prepare analyses of companies they considered to have promising stock. The student whose stock increased the most during the course of the semester would receive an automatic A.

Mr. Sass earned the A and discovered his professional future and lifetime passion. He had chosen Chrysler as his stock—foreshadowing a talent for synthesizing analysis, future-thinking, and real-world gut instinct. After graduating, he went straight to work on Wall Street as a junior security analyst, earning sixty-five dollars a week. In 1972, just prior to the market crash which took the Dow Jones Industrials from 1000 to 577 eighteen months later, he founded his own firm, M.D. Sass. Having weathered significant market booms and busts, M.D. Sass has been a leading name in investment management for thirty-seven years.

Q: Given so many worthy causes, what inspired you to join the Brooklyn College Foundation Board of Trustees and make the College a philanthropic priority? A: Giving to the Brooklyn College Foundation is a wonderful way to make a difference and give back. When I graduated George W. Wingate High School in Brooklyn, my family had no money to send me to college, and I was very fortunate to have Brooklyn College as an option for higher education. My education opened the door to a terrific career and rewarding life. I also met my college sweetheart, Barbara (Berg), at Brooklyn College. We were married right after we both graduated and have been happily married ever since. I feel an indebtedness to give back and know that everyone who serves on the Board with me has exactly the same feeling. Donations to the Foundation have a big impact—for a very modest tuition, students get a great education—one that can transform their future.

Why was the Investment Committee established, and what is its role? When I joined the Board, I wanted to give back in a way that would draw on my own expertise and in a way that would have a positive impact, so I proposed a more formalized process for managing Foundation investments to enhance returns and control risk. In 2002, I worked with the Executive Committee to create a well-qualified Investment Committee and became the chair. We created a formal Investment Policy and Guidelines, implemented a strong conflict of interest policy, and built a relationship with a professional outside consulting firm. We meet about six times a year and have worked to thoughtfully diversify the portfolio in order to achieve superior “risk-adjusted” returns and manage investments prudently.

The Board made some very wise choices before and during the recent financial crisis—how did those decisions evolve?

It has been entirely a team effort. For instance, when the Dow peaked in 2008, my colleague on the committee, Bernie Garil, raised an upcoming obligation to a special fund and suggested we transfer some investments into a money market fund to prepare for that obligation. It took one heartbeat for me to form a resolution and the committee fully supported the idea, which safely set aside substantial funds that avoided the subsequent market crash. We have benefited from wisdom and from luck. Though we had no idea what a fortunate time it was to transfer those funds, we did have decades of experience with the peaks and valleys of the market—and the gut instinct—to know that when things are going “too well,” something else is surely around the corner.

We have also benefited from generous leadership. The Trustees have included several successful investment professionals who have given back generously, including the current head of our Foundation, Barry Feirstein, and a former Foundation president, Roy Furman. Barry has generously contributed a total of $2.9 million to the Foundation and sponsored the “Feirstein Challenge.”

Speaking of gut instinct, how did you choose the Chrysler stock for your senior-year Securities Analysis course—the class that changed everything and truly opened the door for your future?

I loved the models Chrysler came out with that year. As a young guy in Brooklyn with no money, I dreamed of owning one of those cars and thought the company’s value would rise. I followed my gut and dreams in that class, and it has really served me well. Brooklyn was my most valuable training ground. Growing up in Brooklyn, you learn the importance of the basics: common sense, discipline, gut instinct, and street smarts.

Given that, and the financial climate, how does the future look for the Brooklyn College Foundation?

Even when things were at their worst in the market early last year, and everyone was bailing out of stocks, the Investment Committee decided to stick with a disciplined approach to investments. Our preliminary 2010 report indicates that our equities have increased in value by over 36% in 2009; the total managed portion of the fund is up over 26% and even factoring in $15 million in money market instruments and other ancillary funds, the total portfolio was up 18.9% in value last year. It’s looking like a promising comeback.

A Year of Generous Commitments

Thanks to teamwork, wise stewardship, and generous special gifts, the Foundation fulfilled every scholarship and financial commitment to students and faculty for the 2008–2009 fiscal year and beyond. We granted:

More than $1.1 million in scholarships, awards, and prizes
to 1,250 students

More than $50,000
in travel stipends
to 11 students

professorship stipends
to 23 professors

In addition to Barry Feirstein's generous $1 million unrestricted gift, the Foundation received several other noteworthy gifts benefiting students and programs, including:

■ A $300,000 grant from the Carroll and Milton Petrie Foundation to establish the Petrie Student Emergency Fund. The fund's goal is to help students in good standing faced with a sudden insurmountable financial hurdle that might force them to leave school. Examples of emergency situations the Petrie Student Emergency Fund addresses include: sudden job loss or uninsured medical bills, emergency transportation needs, the abrupt loss of a sponsor, the immediate threat of homelessness, and the inability to purchase books or required class materials. The Petrie Student Emergency Fund lets the Foundation help students like Diana, a student majoring in Childhood Education, who received an emergency grant to pay two months past due rent and stay in school.

■ A generous gift from Willard and Eleanor Archie to the Magner Center Program for Life Skills established the Professional Skills Training Program and enabled the creation of the Professional Skills Training Handbook. The handbook documents alumni advice on the importance of various skills and how students can develop those skills, and what alumni attribute their success to and what they know now that they wish they knew in college. The handbook also includes research and survey information on the skills that employers desire.

■ A $200,000 gift from Himan Brown to the Himan Brown Creative Writing Award. Born and reared in Brownsville, Mr. Brown began his broadcasting career while studying at Brooklyn College and went on to become one of the most influential producers in radio history. To date, Mr. Brown has contributed a total of $425,000 to this fund, created to benefit Brooklyn College students who demonstrate exemplary academic merit in creative writing.

■ Gifts totaling $224,000 from seventy-six donors to the Christoph M. Kimmich Fund for Student Success, created in honor of recently retired Brooklyn College President Christoph M. Kimmich. This fund assists Brooklyn College students in their efforts to graduate with a bachelor's degree within the traditional four years. The Christoph M. Kimmich fund supports summer or intersession tuition, stipends for internships or for scholarly work and research, the reimbursement of travel costs for interviews at graduate or professional schools, and the completion of additional courses needed for graduation.

It has been a struggle for me to balance being a mother, a wife, a part-time employee making minimum wage, and still be able to do well in my classes. At a difficult point last year I decided to take time off from school to save money—then I learned about, and was awarded, a Petrie Student Emergency Grant. The Brooklyn College Foundation and Student Affairs' Petrie program truly want what is best for students' education.

Ongoing Initiatives

Thanks to the generosity and vision of Brooklyn College alumni, the Foundation supports several ongoing initiatives to benefit students, professors, and the College community as a whole. These include:

The Performing Arts

Brooklyn College is widely recognized for our dynamic arts curriculum, talented students and faculty, and acclaimed productions, from plays and operas to more intimate concerts and recitals. Our facilities were greatly improved by recent renovations to the performance space in Whitman Hall.

Now, our Facilities Master Plan calls for something even bigger—a brand-new performing arts center. Alumni Leonard Tow, '50, and his wife, Claire, '52, have donated $10 million to the College to create the center. The Leonard and Claire Tow Center for the Performing Arts will raise our profile in the arts world, demonstrating our enduring commitment to performing and visual arts. The plan calls for the demolition of Gershwin Hall and the construction of a new building, which will include rehearsal and performance space, set design and construction workshops, ground-floor exhibition space, a double-height theater seating 200, a grand lobby and arcade, and classroom, meeting and reception rooms. The Tow Center for the Performing Arts will also provide a more engaging entrance to the campus from Campus Road.

Travel Fellowships

Leonard Tow, '50, and his wife Claire Tow, '52, established the first travel fellowships for students and faculty in 2000. A gift from Roy Furman, '60, in 2002, created fellowships specifically for international travel. The forward-thinking generosity of these alumni enabled eighteen students and faculty members to deepen their studies and life experience in 2009.

■ Tow Travel Awards made it possible for students Solomon Bisangwa and Elizabeth Bonilla to travel to India and participate in Professor Patricia Antonello's Study Abroad in India: Global Health Program.

■ On the other side of the globe, Furman Travel Awards enabled students Peter Collazo and Aaron Gavin to explore Argentina and Uruguay, studying language, art, and politics with Professor Mark McMeley.

Tow Travel Awards

Scott Alocci, a history major, will study in Turkey during the summer session 2009. He will participate in Professor Louis Fishman's The Many Faces of Turkey: History, Identity and the Forging of a Nation Program.

Elizabeth Bonilla, a biology major, studied in India during the winter intersession 2009. She participated in Professor Patricia Antonello's Study Abroad in India: Global Health Program.

Aisha Douglas, an English major, studied in China during the winter intersession 2009. She participated in Professor Shuming Lu's CUNY-BC Study Abroad in China Program.

Danielle Fernandez, a Spanish and business double major, studied in Italy during the winter intersession 2009. She participated in the Italian Language and Culture Program offered through Queens College.

The Tow Faculty Travel fellowship has been very instrumental in achieving my research goal.

ERNEST D. GREEN,
Assistant Professor, Africana Studies

Faculty recipients of Tow Travel Fellowships include:

English Professor James Davis will travel to London to continue his research on Eric Walrond, a fiction writer and journalist, best known for his short story collection Tropic Death, published in 1926.

Political Science Professor Ken Estey will travel to Greensboro, Lumberton, and Raleigh, North Carolina, to continue his research on labor protest and workplace justice among conservative Christian populations.

English Professor Jason Frydman will travel to Kingston, Jamaica, to study the regional contributions (local newspaper articles, theatrical performances, contributions to learned societies) of Erna Brodber, Roger Mais, and Derek Walcott.

Psychology Professor Laura Rabin will travel to Indiana University in Indianapolis to utilize its neuro-imaging equipment and genetic technologies for research on the cognitive and neuro-physiological changes associated with the preclinical stages of dementia.

Judaic Studies Professor Sara Reguer will travel to Sardinia to research the survival of the Sardinian Converso community by tracing one family's path further up the mountains, as it sought safety from the Inquisition.

Education and Women's Studies

Professor Barbara Winslow will travel to San Francisco, California; Durham, North Carolina; Seattle, Washington; and Washington, DC, to collect copies of archival materials for the Shirley Chisholm Project of Brooklyn Women's Activism.

Furman Travel Awards

Mohammed Abbasi, a biology major, studied in India during the winter intersession 2009, participating in Professor Annette Danto's Study Abroad India: Documentary Production and Cultural Studies Program.

Beatrice Koehler-Derrick, a psychology major, traveled to Brazil during the spring 2009 semester. At Rio de Janeiro's Pontificia Universidade Catolica, she researched how culture and religion dictate youth sex education curricula.

Malene Schjoenning, a film production major, studied in New Zealand during the winter intersession 2009, working on a travelogue of several long hikes through the country.

As part of Professor Mark McMeley's Art and Politics in Argentina and Uruguay Program, Aaron Gavin, a political science and philosophy major, studied in Argentina and Uruguay during the winter intersession 2009.

Pawel Walczuk, an economics and philosophy double major, studied in Spain during the spring 2009 semester. He participated in the Cultural Experiences Abroad Program and took classes in European economy, EU Integration, international relations, and US-European relations since World War II.

Professorship Stipends

The Foundation contributes to the growth of our faculty through Professorship stipends. Twenty-seven new faculty members joined the College community in 2009, several are supported by the Foundation. Foundation funds enable Brooklyn College to attract esteemed scholars who engage our students on the most important issues of our day.

The Endowed Chair in Women's Studies was awarded to visiting Professor Huma Ahmed-Ghosh. Her research focuses on women in Afghanistan, Muslim immigrant women in the USA, and Islam and feminism.

The Carol and Larry Zicklin Chair in the Sciences was awarded to Visiting Professor Luis Quadri. He is a microbiologist who works on developing new treatments for drug-resistant, life-threatening infections, such as tuberculosis and other infectious diseases.

The Belle Zeller Visiting Professorship in Public Policy and Administration was awarded to Gary Younge. He won the 2009 James Cameron prize for his reporting during the campaign and election of President Barack Obama. His book No Place Like Home, in which he retraced the route of the civil rights Freedom Riders, was shortlisted for the Guardian First Book Award.

Donors to the Brooklyn College Foundation

Your generous gifts provide critical resources for faculty and academic programs and ensure Brooklyn College students have affordable access to excellent higher education. Thanks to you, the Foundation provides thousands of scholarships annually and supports sustainable growth at Brooklyn College. The trustees of the Brooklyn College Foundation are pleased to acknowledge the following donors whose gifts, made between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2009, empower Brooklyn College students to achieve success.

The Annual Fund

Your donations to the Annual Fund provide critical unrestricted operating support, making it possible for the Foundation to respond to the immediate and evolving needs of Brooklyn College students and programs. Even during the toughest economic climate in our history, the Foundation was able to fulfill every financial commitment to students, professors, and programs—thanks to your unrestricted gifts.

We are deeply grateful to those individuals who made unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2009.

“The Annual Fund serves as a renewable stream of sustainable revenue, enabling the College to meet current institutional priorities. Every Annual Fund dollar is available to be spent, and, therefore, has the immediate impact of twenty-five endowment dollars.”

—Andrew Sillen, '74, Executive Director,
 Brooklyn College Foundation

Many donors significantly increased their contributions to the Brooklyn College Foundation through matching gift programs sponsored by their employers. We sincerely thank the companies that support the philanthropic commitments of their employees by matching their donations to Brooklyn College.

Thank You!

Committees

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee comprises all officers and committee chairs and the president of Brooklyn College. The Executive Committee has all the powers of the board when the board is not in session. The Executive Committee considers key recommendations from the board committees listed below, and sets the agenda for the full board meeting.

Audit and Finance Committee

Barry Feirstein, '74, Chair

The Audit and Finance Committee selects and works with the Foundation's auditors, currently Loeb & Troper, to ensure that the Foundation continues to meet nationally accepted auditing standards. In addition to reviewing the annual financial statements and budget, the committee examines employee policies and procedures to ensure Foundation compliance with CUNY best practices.

Development Committee

Howard Wohl, '64, Chair

The Development Committee provides oversight of the fundraising activities of the Foundation, including monitoring the staffing and goal-setting of the Development Office. Members provide critical advice on alumni research, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship.

Investment Committee

Martin Sass, '63, Chair

The Investment Committee is charged with prudently building the Foundation's endowment fund to secure the long-term future of Brooklyn College. Committee members are responsible for the development and periodic review of the fund's investment policies and guidelines and for asset allocation to various investment strategies to achieve appropriate diversification of the fund's investments based on its needs and objectives. The committee selects, meets with, and manages a variety of outside professional investment managers, in consultation with an outside adviser and monitoring firm.

Governance and Nominating Committee

Myron Kandel, '52, Chair

The Governance and Nominating Committee is charged with ensuring best-practice governance of the Foundation and continued development of the Foundation's board of trustees. Responsibilities include directing research for prospective board members and providing recommendations for new board candidates, for officers of the Foundation, and for honorary governors.

Performing Arts Center Committee

Don Buchwald, '59, Chair

The Performing Arts Center Committee is charged with monitoring the Foundation's role in supporting the College's new project to build a state-of-the-art performing arts center for Brooklyn College. The committee members consulted on the design and construction of the center, helped to select the architectural team, set naming opportunities, and monitored the progress of the funding campaign.

Planned Giving Committee

Sam Beller, '59, Chair

Planned Giving Committee members provide guidance and technical expertise on planned gifts and the solicitation of such gifts in the form of bequests, life income trust, charitable lead trust, life insurance, or gifts of stock or real estate.

Student Life Committee

Ed Cohen, '62, Chair

The Student Life Committee engages Foundation trustees in campus activities and programs that enrich the lives of students. Foundation trustees are joined on this committee by key administrators, including the dean of undergraduate studies and the dean of student affairs, and two students who work with trustees to identify critical student needs.

Brooklyn College Legacy Society

We honor the members of our Legacy Society for their visionary gifts to ensure the future of Brooklyn College. The Legacy Society is a group of generous alumni and friends who have named the Brooklyn College Foundation in their wills, trusts, life income gifts, insurance policies, and retirement plans. We are grateful for their extraordinary commitment to future generations.

“Whatever success I have had in my career I owe to and share with Brooklyn College and key faculty mentors; their contribution to me was huge. To give back to my alma mater is my small but sincere way to say THANKS.” —Stuart Kessler, '50

Class of 1959 50th Reunion Gift

We are grateful to those members of our Class of 1959 who celebrated their 50th graduation reunion by graciously giving back to Brooklyn College. This year, when use of endowment funds was restricted due to the financial crisis, the Class of 1959 committee voted unanimously to raise unrestricted funds that could be put to work immediately. Thanks to their generosity, the Foundation fulfilled every commitment to scholarships and programs, and was able to respond to increasing student needs. The Class of 1959's important gift will be recognized in our Commemorative Brick Plaza, located in front of the entrance to our new West Quad Center.

Class Act Campaign

In 2009 the Foundation established the Class Act campaign to recognize legacy gifts of $100,000 or more by designating a classroom to be named in honor of the donor. A special plaque highlighting the careers of these exceptional alumni serves to honor the gift and inspire current students.

The Campaign was kicked off in May with a ceremony to acknowledge a generous gift by Alan H. Washkowitz, '62, who made it possible for the Honors Academy to construct a new state-of-the-art "smart" classroom for the Academy.

Laying the Groundwork for Success— Brick by Brick— The New Commemorative Brick Plaza

This year we inaugurated the Brooklyn College Commemorative Brick Plaza, located in front of the new West Quad Center. The Brick Plaza offers alumni and friends a unique opportunity to celebrate a graduation, observe a special occasion, remember a parent, honor a loved one, or highlight a lifelong connection to the College while contributing to the success of future Brooklyn College students. All commemorative brick purchases support the College's Annual Fund. We proudly acknowledge those who have generously elected to leave their mark on Brooklyn College's history.

How You Can Support Brooklyn College

The Brooklyn College Foundation relies on the generosity of individuals, foundations, and corporations to help further Brooklyn College's mission of providing high-quality, affordable education to students. There are many ways you can support our work.

The Annual Fund

Annual Fund gifts by alumni and friends provide for current needs that cannot be funded by state assistance, tuition, or fees. The College increasingly relies on such private contributions to strengthen its programs. Your unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund support academic scholarships, professorships, faculty research grants, improved campus facilities, co-curricular student-learning opportunities, and new technologies for classrooms and laboratories.

The Legacy Society: Planned Gifts and Bequests

By making a provision for the College in their estate planning, members of the Brooklyn College Legacy Society share our vision of academic excellence for future generations. The Brooklyn College Foundation offers you several future-oriented investment opportunities including life income trust, charitable lead trust, life insurance, or gifts of stock or real estate. Legacy Society members may also make planned gifts in the form of a bequest.

The Boylan Society

The Boylan Society is the Brooklyn College Foundation's monthly giving program. Members of the Boylan Society authorize the Foundation to receive a monthly tax-deductible gift from their checking account or credit card. This is a wonderful opportunity to provide dependable and enduring support to Brooklyn College. As a member of the Boylan Society you no longer need to be concerned with renewal payments or reminder mailings. And since automatic monthly gifts do not require these outreach efforts, they are the most efficient way to sustain the level of academic excellence at Brooklyn College.

Gifts Online

It is now easier than ever to make a donation to Brooklyn College! Just log on to the Brooklyn College Foundation website, www.brooklyncollegefoundation.org, and use our secure connection to make a tax-deductible gift with your credit card or debit card with a MasterCard, American Express, or Visa logo. We also accept automatic fund transfers from your checking or savings account. It is a wonderful and convenient way to help us continue our work on behalf of Brooklyn College students.

Establishing a Scholarship, Award, or Prize

The Brooklyn College Foundation offers more than six hundred scholarships and awards—valued at nearly $2 million annually—that provide our most talented students with access to excellence and opportunity. Within limits, a scholarship, award, or prize may reflect the specific wishes of a donor. Many funds have been established to honor a former student or faculty member or to encourage students in a particular academic area. Establishing a scholarship, award, or prize can also be a very personal and special way to memorialize a loved one's interests.

Naming Opportunities

Brooklyn College is home to a wide spectrum of naming opportunities. Options for individuals or groups of donors range from commemorative bricks in front of our new West Quad Center, to benches near our beloved Brooklyn College Lily Pond, to commemorative plaques in classrooms or lecture halls around campus. These are very special opportunities to leave behind a legacy at the College, while contributing to the success of future Brooklyn College students.

Tributes and Memorials

The Brooklyn College Foundation Tribute and Memorial Program was created in response to alumni requests as a means to offer special recognition to those who have made a difference in their lives. A donation to the Tribute and Memorial Program can honor your loved one, friend, business associate, or caregiver. Gifts have been made to commemorate special occasions, including birthdays, anniversaries, or retirement. The program is a meaningful way to express feelings of remembrance or gratitude.

Matching Gifts: Double the Impact of Your Donation!

Each year, more than seven thousand corporations provide matching funds to educational and cultural organizations across the country. If your company matches employee contributions to higher education, you may be eligible to have your gift to the Brooklyn College Foundation matched. Your company's human resources department or personnel office will most likely have details about an employee matching benefit. Complete the matching-gift form provided by your employer and send it with your gift. The Foundation will process the company form and notify you when the matching gift is received.
