ANNUAL REPORT
2012-2013

Dear Alumni and Friends,

It is with great pleasure that we present this year's annual report of the Brooklyn College Foundation. In taking the role of foundation chair, I am very mindful of the wonderful job done by my predecessor, Barry R. Feirstein. I want to start by thanking Barry for his four years of exceptional leadership. I would also like to thank all of the trustees of the foundation for their continuing service and commitment.

I take this opportunity to congratulate President Karen L. Gould as she enters her fifth year of outstanding leadership at Brooklyn College. All of us in the foundation look forward to working with her to advance the college's key initiatives.

I am pleased to take on the chairmanship of the foundation because I am excited about our work together on behalf of the college, its students, and faculty. In the pages of this report, you will see how the foundation and the generosity of individual donors directly impacts the lives of our students, while, at the same time, providing a source of great satisfaction for donors.

Our work together is made possible by thousands of gifts, large and small, provided over the past year. Thanks to everyone who shares our vision to provide excellent, affordable access to higher education.

Sincerely,

Edwin H. Cohen '62
Chair, Brooklyn College Foundation

Dear Alumni and Friends of Brooklyn College,

The Brooklyn College Foundation is a vital resource in our mission to provide access to quality and affordable higher education. For over 40 years, the foundation has helped to ensure that Brooklyn College students and faculty can take part in academic experiences that will transform their personal and professional lives.

I am truly grateful to Barry R. Feirstein for his leadership of the foundation. He has been a wonderful partner with a deep commitment to the mission and vision of the college. We are honored to open our new graduate school of cinema in his name. The school will provide a unique opportunity for talented students who wish to pursue careers in this burgeoning industry.

I am also delighted to have the opportunity to work with our new foundation chair, Edwin Cohen. Ed brings a wealth of experience and enthusiasm and I am certain that under his guidance, the foundation will continue to offer critical support for the college and its initiatives.

This year's annual report highlights many of the student and faculty achievements that are a direct result of the work of the foundation and our generous donors who believe that a rigorous academic experience is invaluable to professional success.

Brooklyn College reflects the aspiration and dynamism of our wonderful borough. Our distinctive tradition of academic excellence is bolstered by the ongoing support of those who have contributed to the college and invested in its future.

Sincerely,

Karen L. Gould
President

From its inception in 1958,

the Brooklyn College Foundation has supported the mission of Brooklyn College. It has helped to provide students with access to an excellent, low-cost education and supported faculty to achieve scholarly and artistic distinction.

This year's report will show the profound impact our donors have both on the college community and beyond our gates.

The foundation funds scholarships, professorships, internships, and opportunities for foreign study and research that often make the difference between good achievements and great ones.

With each scholarship, our donors save a promising student from abandoning his or her studies. By providing extra money for internships and study abroad, our donors allow Brooklyn College students to gain the edge wealthier families take for granted. In supporting stipends and professorships, our donors attract gifted and distinguished faculty members, and help us to retain them for the benefit of our students.

Talk to the recipients of our alumni's generosity and one hears countless stories of lives changed. A term studying abroad leads to a Ph.D. at a more competitive graduate school; an internship at a renowned medical center broadens a student's grasp of both laboratory and clinical oncology. "I never could have done this without..." is repeated time and again by the gifted and grateful students and faculty members who have received the foundation's support.

The following stories show the vast impact of our donors' contributions. They also highlight the rewards of giving; our donors, many of whom attribute a part of their success to the college, look for and find lasting meaning in the relationships they form with a new generation of students and scholars.

One alumnus described the beneficiaries of his support as an "extended family." His words evoke the remarks of President Franklin D. Roosevelt at the ceremony to lay the cornerstone for Roosevelt Hall: "May Brooklyn College live through the generations." Because of the generosity of our donors, future generations and the vitality of the college is ensured.

Miles Butler '14

"The Wilpons' contribution has given me the time, space and resources to fully explore my artistic identity at Brooklyn College. It has also opened the door to a community of scholarship students, alumni and teachers—a group of people I will not soon forget."

A college degree has historically been the most reliable means of upward mobility in the United States. Yet a recent study by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation found that burdensome financial demands are the number one reason many students do not complete their education. With 50 percent of our students simultaneously holding jobs and attending school, a scholarship from the Brooklyn College Foundation can mean the difference between dropping out or continuing on the path to a prestigious career.

Last year, we helped an estimated 1,400 of our most promising students to continue, complete and enrich their learning through scholarships and awards totaling $1.9 million. These funds not only help the college fulfill its mission to provide an excellent and affordable education; they explain why we continue to achieve national distinction. Over the last four years, the widely read Princeton Review has cited Brooklyn College as one of "America's Best Value Colleges."

Hannah Vitale '14

"Without the Mazursky Scholarship I would not be shooting my film and would not be able to explore this medium as fully as I am preparing to do. I have made films but not like this. The award has allowed me to up the production value. The entire process has been pretty magical."

Professorships

Looking back on their years, alumni typically cite two remarkable Brooklyn College qualities: our academic excellence and superb faculty. Our faculty's reputation as passionate leaders in their disciplines who are strongly committed to their students is no accident. The college actively seeks ways to recruit and retain outstanding teachers; to do this they rely on the generous stipends and esteemed professorships created by our alumni.

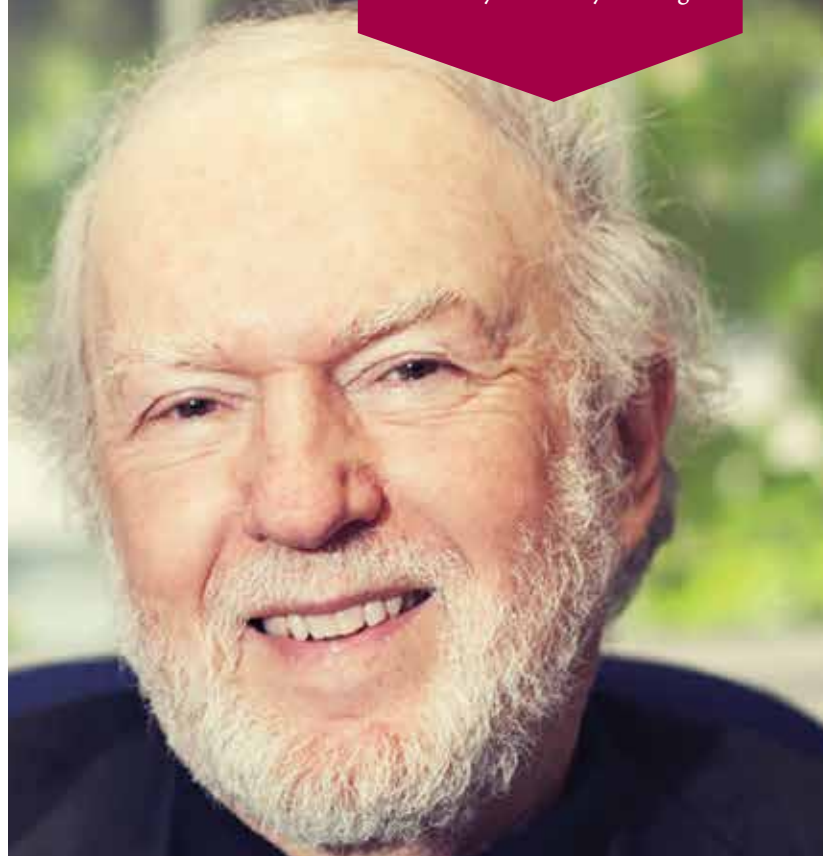

Professorships awarded to our scholars, researchers, and artists serve many purposes. They provide faculty with freedom from the usual constraints of money and time, helping them to complete important publications, research, and artistic endeavors. At the same time, such distinctions acknowledge significant contributions to their fields. In this way, our students today continue to share with our alumni the rewards of learning from the best, while we continue to strengthen the fabric of the entire Brooklyn College community.

The award has also enabled me to involve students in my research, a privilege that I appreciate all the more having been a Brooklyn College undergraduate myself."*

Thanks to the Lyons Professorship, I am able not only to finish my doctoral work, but to teach in an environment so rich with meaning. Teaching at Brooklyn College, you teach to the world. It really brings a human face to the research I'm doing."*

"Thanks to the Norman Saks Memorial Travel Award, I was able to work in the Philippines on a project that seeks to insure the survival of nautilus — amazing creatures that are older than dinosaurs but are in danger of becoming extinct. The award helped to establish me firmly in my field, and advance our knowledge of deep sea ecosystems."

Jen-I Costosa '13

"My experience was life changing. Through the Furman Fellows program, I was able to do fieldwork in Barbuda with talented scientists and researchers. I enjoyed working with them so much that I plan to go on for my masters in sustainability science and education at the CUNY center and from there, to get my Ph.D. in anthropology. I delight in sharing my experience with the Brooklyn College community — and beyond — on the benefits of cultural exchange programs to promote global citizenship."

In today's global market, knowledge of other cultures and languages is a requirement. A recent CUNY Jobs Task Force report, one of many similar studies, found that fluency in multiple languages and experience working or studying abroad are among the top qualities valued by employers. The American Association of Colleges and Universities has noted that students receive a dramatic boost to their future career success if they study abroad.

Many of our students cannot afford to take advantage of international opportunities. On their own, few can raise the $5,000 typically required to study, work or travel abroad.

In understanding our students' situation, our donors have funded student travel opportunities on both the undergraduate and graduate level. Foundation-sponsored fieldwork in foreign countries often alters students' professional plans and strengthens their applications to more competitive graduate schools.

Our donors' generosity allows us to offer our students an international experience that is in increasing demand in our changing global environment and to extend the reputation of Brooklyn College to the international community.

Thelma '54 and Myron '52 Kandel Internship, awarded to students accepted into unpaid or low-paying internship programs

RECIPIENT

Laurie Cherefant '14

"Because the internship at TV Land was unpaid and because I wasn't getting any financial aid, I was a little apprehensive to take it. The stipend helped me to be able to get food every day and to travel to and from the studio without any worries as to whether or not I could afford it. Since I was studying journalism, the Kandel internship allowed me to have the opportunity to gain some hands-on, worldly experience as a student—experience I probably wouldn't be able to receive if I didn't get a stipend."

DONORS

Myron '52 and Thelma '54 Kandel

Internships

The value of internships to undergraduates has soared during the last decade. As President Karen L. Gould pointed out recently, students who participate in internships are more likely to continue their undergraduate studies, and with a sharper focus. Yet 58 percent of our students stated that they would not be able to take on an internship if it did not provide a stipend. Attempting to juggle school, work and unpaid internships is not a recipe for success, either on the job or in the classroom. Stretched in this way, students may end up abandoning the internship or jeopardizing their academic careers.

Here, too, foundation funds make the difference. With foresight and wisdom, our donors have arranged for and often offer remarkable internships in such settings as corporate headquarters, research laboratories and repertory companies. Some interns discover unknown talents; others refine and apply old ones. In the best cases, providential matches between interns and their positions both advance the students' careers and enrich the fields in which they interned. A biology major, for example, watched with pride as research he had done during his internship was incorporated into an important clinical trial. Without funding for such internships, many students would either have to forego them or follow the money trail to fields unrelated to their passion or expertise. Instead, our students receive what college graduates everywhere deserve — the chance to follow their professional interests from the very start of their careers.

"For me, the experience has come full circle. It is not an exaggeration to say that without the Don Buchwald Internship I received during my graduate studies, I would never be where I am today. And having experienced firsthand the extraordinary impact of that gift on my own career, I feel compelled to maximize the number of students who can enjoy similar experiences."

As these stories have shown, the connection between the donor and the recipient is profound and at times regenerative.

Grateful for the support they have received, recipients of foundation awards are often compelled — even inspired — to become donors themselves.

"I am deeply grateful for the Claire Tow Distinguished Teacher Award. It validates my efforts as an instructor and mentor. When I received the award, I was working on a National Science Foundation project to expose talented underrepresented students to the neurosciences. The Tow Award will enable me to develop a program to guide new faculty members through the process of writing their own educational grants, spawning innovative instructional programs that will benefit Brooklyn College students for years to come."

"With a Wolff-Ravenal Art Travel Award in my pocket, I attended the Society for Photographic Education conference in San Francisco where I rubbed shoulders with Trevor Paglen, Sally Mann, Sandra S. Phillips, Sharon Olds and many other artists and scholars who are profoundly shaping the photographic industry. I was particularly influenced by Mr. Paglen's geographical work and ended up using his Last Pictures project as a large part of my master's thesis on the political discourse of artworks in outer space. To me, the trip was an exciting initiation into the broader scholastic community. I was profoundly impacted by the experience."

"Without the Charles C. Bales Theater History Award, I could not have focused on my master's thesis as intently as I did, which directly led to my admittance to the Ph.D. program in Performance as Public Practice at the University of Texas at Austin. Ultimately, I hope to teach at the college level, and to further explore the role the performing arts play in shaping our national identity. The generosity of this award has begun to make this pursuit possible."

We are getting ready to launch the Barry R. Feirstein Graduate School of Cinema at Steiner Studios, the first public graduate school of cinema for New York City, and the only school in the country situated on a working film lot. Scheduled to open in the fall of 2015, the School was formed with the objective of providing affordable access to career opportunities in cinema while providing a pipeline of diverse talent to the industry. It is the result of an extensive public-private partnership involving notable Brooklyn College alumni, the Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment, Steiner Studios, the New York City Council, the Brooklyn Borough President and the City University of New York (CUNY).

To date, the college has raised over $21 million for the project, which includes a leadership gift of $5.5 million from Barry R. Feirstein '74; significant contributions from alumni Don Buchwald '59, Roy Furman '60, Jules Haimovitz '71 and Michael Lynne '61; $6.7 million from the Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment to develop a Made in New York Center for Digital Arts in the new school; and $3 million from the City Council and the Office of the Borough President.

As a brand-new school conceived and inaugurated in the 21st century, both the curriculum and facilities have been designed to prepare students in digital media. Construction of the facility is well underway, and in August 2012 we welcomed a distinguished and experienced founding director, Jonathan Wacks.

"Jonathan Wacks embodies two things: he brings the practical skills that we want, but he also brings the educational background," says Maria Conelli '80, the dean of the School of Visual, Media and Performing Arts at Brooklyn College. "Anytime you're launching a graduate program, it's truly critical that the person [heading it] has these two qualities."

Wacks has served as the chair of the Department of Visual and Media Arts at Emerson College for the last three years and has spent 20 years in the film and television industry, where he was a producer of the cult classic Repo Man and was director of the television series 21 Jump Street.

Commemorative Brick Plaza

Seen daily by students, faculty members and visitors, the custom engraved bricks at the entrance of the West Quad Center, the newest building on campus, offer alumni and friends a novel way to honor loved ones, celebrate an event, or simply enshrine one's thoughts for future generations. Proceeds support the college's vital annual fund. With gratitude, we recognize the following friends who purchased commemorative bricks between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013.

Class of 1963 50th Reunion Gift

Since its construction in the 1930s, the Brooklyn College campus, known for its distinctive beauty, has been an elm-shaded oasis of calm in an urban setting. Age, disease, and two major storms, however, have taken their toll on these noble trees. Thanks to the generosity of the Class of 1963, a fund has been created to replace the elm trees in the Central Quad. Given in celebration of the class' 50th reunion, the gift will ensure that the beauty of the college endures through the generations. Thank you, Class of 1963.

Board Committees

Executive Committee

The executive committee comprises all officers and committee chairs, and the president of Brooklyn College. The executive committee has all the powers of the board when the board is not in session. The executive committee considers key recommendations from the board committees listed below and sets the agenda for the full board meeting.

Audit and Finance Committee

Mark Steiger '89, Chair

The audit and finance committee selects and works with the foundation's auditors, currently Loeb & Troper, to ensure that the foundation continues to meet nationally accepted auditing standards. In addition to reviewing the annual financial statements and budget, the committee examines employee policies and procedures to ensure foundation compliance with state and federal regulations and CUNY best practices.

Investment Committee

Martin Sass '63, Chair

The investment committee is charged with prudently building the foundation's endowment fund to secure the long-term future of Brooklyn College. Committee members are responsible for the development and periodic review of the fund's investment policies and guidelines, and for asset allocation to various investment strategies to achieve appropriate diversification of the fund's investments based on its needs and objectives. The committee selects, meets with and manages a variety of outside professional investment managers in consultation with an outside adviser and monitoring firm.

Development Committee

Marge Magner '69, Chair

The development committee provides oversight of the fundraising activities of the foundation, including monitoring the staffing and goal-setting of the development office. Members provide critical advice on alumni research, cultivation, solicitation and stewardship.

Governance and Nominating Committee

Myron Kandel '52, Chair

The governance and nominating committee is charged with ensuring best-practice governance of the foundation and continued development of the foundation's board of trustees. Responsibilities include directing research for prospective board members and providing recommendations for new board candidates, officers of the foundation and for honorary governors.

Planned Giving Committee

Sam Beller '59, Chair

The planned giving committee provides guidance and technical expertise on planned gifts in the form of bequests, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, life insurance, gifts of stock or real estate to the Brooklyn College Foundation.

How You Can Support Brooklyn College

The Brooklyn College Foundation relies on the generosity of individuals, foundations, and corporations to help further the college's mission of providing high-quality, affordable education to our students. There are many ways that donors can support our work.

The Annual Fund

Gifts to the annual fund provide critical unrestricted operating supports making it possible for the foundation to respond to the immediate and evolving needs of Brooklyn College. Common uses of annual fund dollars include student scholarships, internship stipends and travel abroad support, funding for faculty research, as well as school improvements. Unrestricted annual fund gifts are essential and benefit more than 16,000 students each year.

The Boylan Society

The Boylan Society is the Brooklyn College Foundation's monthly giving program. When you join the Boylan Society, you authorize the foundation to receive a monthly tax-deductible gift from your checking account or by credit card. This is a wonderful opportunity to provide dependable, enduring, and reliable support to your alma mater. You will no longer need to be concerned with renewal payments or reminder mailings. And since automatic monthly gifts do not require outreach efforts to secure, they are the most efficient way to sustain the level of academic excellence at Brooklyn College.

Corporations and Foundations

The Brooklyn College Foundation works with faculty and college leadership to identify, build and steward relationships with corporations and foundations to ensure long-term and mutually beneficial partnerships. We aim to understand the needs of corporations and foundations and connect them with appropriate solutions at Brooklyn College. With a world-class faculty, a diverse and talented student body and strong academic and co-curricular programs, Brooklyn College offers significant investment opportunities.

Establishing a Restricted Fund

A restricted fund helps to meet the needs of Brooklyn College and our students while reflecting the specific interests or desires of a donor. Restricted funds may support student scholarships, awards and travel stipends, as well as faculty research and endowed professorships. Establishing and naming a restricted fund can be a special way to honor or memorialize a loved one's interests or accomplishments, honor a former student and/or faculty member or encourage students in a particular academic area. The Brooklyn College Foundation welcomes donations to establish and name new restricted funds, as well as donations of any size in support of already existing restricted funds.

Members of the Legacy Society share our vision of academic excellence for future generations by making a provision for the college in their estate planning. The Brooklyn College Foundation offers several future-oriented investment opportunities, including charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts or life insurance. Legacy Society members may also make planned gifts in the form of a bequest.

Matching Gifts: Double the Impact of Your Donation

If your company matches employee contributions to higher education, you may be able to seek a match for your gift to the Brooklyn College Foundation. In order to find out if your company provides matching gifts please visit our online matching gift search engine on the donate page of the foundations website for further instructions or check with www.brooklyncollegefoundation.org. Your human resources office can provide specific instructions about how to seek a company matching gift.

Naming Opportunities

Brooklyn College offers a wide spectrum of naming opportunities. Individuals or groups of donors may select from a menu of naming options ranging from commemorative bricks in front of our new West Quad Center, to benches near our beloved lily pond, to classrooms or lecture halls around campus. These are very special opportunities to leave behind a legacy at the college while contributing to the success of future Brooklyn College students.

Tributes and Memorials

The Brooklyn College Foundation Tribute and Memorial Program was created in response to alumni requests as a means to offer special recognition to those who have made a difference in their lives. A donation to the Tribute and Memorial Program gives you the opportunity to honor a loved one, friend, business associate or caregiver. Gifts have been made to commemorate special occasions, including birthdays, anniversaries or retirement. The program is a meaningful way to express feelings of remembrance or gratitude.
